

COURSE PROGRAM

Welcome to a course in Laboratory Diagnostics of the Medicine Patient!

A course for all clinically practicing veterinarians.

DATE AND VENUE:

The course is digital.

January 20: 08:00-11:00 and 13:00-16:30

January 21: 08:00-11:00 and 13:00-16:30

January 22: 08:00-11:00 and 13:00-16:30

A link will be sent to all attendees in good time before the course starts.

COURSE CONTENT:

The aim of the course is to provide veterinarians with the tools to choose the right diagnostic tests and make correct interpretations of laboratory findings. It highlights many medical diseases and covers hematology, hemostasis, nephrology, acid-base disorders, gastroenterology, endocrinology, the approach to polyuria/polydipsia, calcium/phosphorus balance, the diabetic patient, acute phase proteins and of course case discussions.

COURSE FEE:

9.500 SEK + VAT including 3 days of lectures, course material and course certificate.

REGISTRATION:

At the latest January 15th, 2021 at www.ivcevidensiaacademy.com/se

For more info or if you have questions, contact academy.sweden@evidensia.se

Registration is binding.

SPEAKER:

Rebecca Berg

DVM, DipECVIM, works at AWAKE Animal Hospital in Stockholm. Did her residency at university of California, Davis and was part of the founding team of NYC Veterinary Specialists in Manhattan. After moving back to Sweden Rebecca founded Sweden's first IR/IE service in Strömsholm.

SPEAKER:

Josefine Öberg

DVM, DipECVCP, works at AniCura Regiondjursjukhuset Bagarmossen in Stockholm. She did her residency at Universitetsdjursjukhuset, Uppsala, Sweden, has lectured in clinical pathology at many courses and has written numerous publications. She has also worked as Group Specialist for AniCura.

www.ivcevidensiaacademy.com